HARLEM RACING.

As no stake race was on the program at Harlem yesterday the crowd was comparatively light, but those that were present enjoyed a fair day's sport. The track had dried out considerably but was somewhat slow and dead.

The most important race of the day was the fourth, a handicap purse of $800, for three-year-olds and upward, at six furlongs. Toah was made an 8 to 5 favorite and rewarded the confidence placed in him by his many backers, by winning in a big romp. Money Muss, as usual, showed the way until well into the last quarter, where Winkfield called on Toah, which went to the front in a bound winning as his rider pleased by four lengths from Brulare, which beat Pretorius three for second place. Brulare began slowly, but in the last half made up ground fast and finished strongly. Pretorius was well up for five furlongs, but tired fast when the pinch came. Bragg was beaten off all the way and was undoubtedly short.

The steeplechase over the short course proved to be an easy victory for Wenlock, which has shown himself to be one of the best and most consistent fencers that has performed here this year. David S. showed the way up to the last jump, where Wenlock moved up fast and easily passed into the lead, winning eased up by four lengths from Old Fox, which beat Torreon a head for second place. Old Fox closed up ground fast in the last eighth and wore down Torreon in the closing strides. Mystic Shriner made up some ground in the last half of the chase. David S. tired badly in the run down the stretch. The race was clean cut throughout, not a horse making the slightest mistake.

In the first race, a dash of one mile, thirteen three-year-olds and upward maidens faced the barrier. The winner turned up in Blessed Damocel, which moved up from seventh position when turning for home and easily assumed the lead in the last eighth, winning by four lengths from Birdwood, which beat Wild Oats a neck for second place. Birdwood finished fast on the outside after making up much ground in the last quarter. Wild Oats showed much speed, but tired when the pinch came. Hopefield ran well for six and a half furlongs.

The second race, a dash of six furlongs for two-year-olds, resulted in a big surprise, Antagonist, held at 2 to 5 in the betting, being beaten by Pericles and Lord Touchwood. The last named showed the way to the head of the stretch and had a lead of two lengths at the last eighth post, but along here Williams brought up Pericles, which gradually wore down Lord Touchwood in the last sixteenth, winning by a half length. Lord Touchwood beat Antagonist a nose on the post for second place. Winkfield gave Antagonist a poor ride, swinging wide with him when turning for home and losing ground. Shooting Star ran well for four and one-half furlongs.

Dodie S., a rank outsider in the betting, took the fifth race, a dash of one and one-sixteenth miles, by a neck from Scotch Plaid in a hotly contested finish. Western Duke finished third two lengths back. Dodie S. saved ground by going next to the inside rail when turning for home. Hers was a lucky win. Scotch Plaid was much the best. He was cut out of position at the half and fell back to last place and was then taken wide at the stretch turn. In the last sixteenth he moved up fast under a vigorous ride and was gradually wearing down the winner in the closing strides. Frank M. tired fast when the pinch came.

The last race, a dash of one and one-sixteenth miles, was taken by Do Madge. Red Apple led by a fair margin until well into the last quarter where Do Madge came up fast and easily passed him, winning by two lengths from Leo Newell, which beat the tiring Red Apple three for second place. Do Madge showed marked improvement over her last race, in which she put up a poor performance.

Alfred C. showed early speed and the same may be said of Light Ball.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

Secretary Nathanson has announced a special race at a mile, Saturday, between Rose Tree and Jimenez, each to carry ninety-eight pounds. The horses will be given a flying start and an effort will be made to lower the American record for the distance. Each of the owners will be represented in the timer's stand by a competent timer. Jockey Helgesen will have the mount on Rose Tree, while Birkenruth will pilot Jimenez.

For inconsistent running, the entry of Antagonist will in future be refused at Harlem.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jockey Buchanan is in receipt of a letter from jockey A. Songer, who for several years has been riding in France, but has returned and is now in Buffalo. He expects to ride there and on the New York tracks and will go to San Francisco for the winter. Of the American riders in France he says that Rigby has recently been suspended for two months, while A. McIntyre has had his license revoked.

The following horses in training, the property of H. T. Griffin, C. R. Ellison, W. Griffin, J. Arthur, H. C. Riddle and F. Phillips, will be sold in the Harlem paddock at 12:30 p. m. next Saturday: Lady Gaffer, Nightfall, Jove, Florestan, Jackfull, Queen of Dixiana, Senator Morrison, Dr. Worth, Little Daisy, Boomerack, Quincy, Lady Chorister, George Whitney and Alfred C.

A dispatch of last evening stated that starter Fitzgerald is at the point of death, with no chance of escape. But a short time ago he was reported to be on the road to recovery from an attack of typhoid. He suffered a relapse, however, and his physicians gave up hope yesterday.

Inquirer, Chicago. Flying Buttress having been sold to M. J. Cavanagh prior to the race and Dixieline scratched, there was no R. T. Wilson Jr. entry in the second race at Sheepshead Bay Tuesday and money wagered on the entry is to be returned.

Subscriber, Chicago. The American Derby was won by Robert Waddell, a horse bred in the east and owned by an eastern turfman, consequently emphatically an eastern horse.

M. A. P. and others, Chicago. When a race is split it constitutes a new engagement and wagers made prior to the split are void.

Baldock, Birmingham, Mich. Red Robe was "out" to show.

J. C., Chicago. Ed Adack was 3 to 1 post betting.

SAN FRANCISCO STAKES.

The list of stakes to be run at the winter and spring meeting of the California Jockey Club has been made public.

Seventeen stakes are on the program, ranging in date from November 15, 1902, to April 4 of next year, and all of them have added money instead of the guaranteed value, except the Burns Handicap, which is guaranteed to be worth $10,000.

Second on the list is the California Futurity, with $8,750 added money, which will give it a big value. The California Oaks for three-year-old fillies is to be perpetuated, $2,000 being the announced added money. For two-year-olds there are the Gebhard Handicap over the futurity course, with $1,750 added, and the Bell Stakes at five furlongs, and with the same amount of coin coming from the association. The California Derby for three-year-olds will be run over the usual distance of a mile and a quarter, and will have $2,500 added money.

The remainder of the stakes, distance, name and added money value are as follows:

Opening Handicap, one mile, $1,500 added; Thanksgiving Handicap, one mile and a furlong,

Winner—Ch. c, by Sir Dixon—Kismet (trained by P. Wimmer).
Went to post at 2:35. At post 5 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second driving. Ipse Dixit secured a lucky start and had clear sailing, finished fast through the stretch, was easily best and is above the average. Glennevis went gamely under a very weak and inefficient ride. Falconbridge was carried to the extreme outside on the turn, but closed up with a rush and is probably a good one. Sir Preston quit as usual. Gallant Smith was pocketed in the last furlong. Barkelmore, favored by slow going, closed a big gap.

Scratched—34732 Sweet Nell, 109; 34824 Merry Reel, 109; Helen C. S., 104.

Overweights—Barkelmore, 2 pounds.

Winner—B. g, by Charade—Lydia Belle (trained by E. Wishard).
Went to post at 3:05. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second easily. Conundrum waited in front under a pull and outstayed G. Whittier at the end. The latter beat the gate and displayed fine speed, held on well and is steadily improving. Bar Le Duc closed up very strongly at the end. Kingraine tired after being seemingly secure of third place. Ben Howard was outclassed. Dr. Riddle was practically left.

Scratched—34917 Gibson Light, 104; 34856 Dixieline, 102.

Overweights—G. Whittier, 2 pounds.

Winner—B. c, by Hastings—Fides (trained by J. Hyland).
Went to post at 3:30. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Fire Eater, particularly favored by soft going, held way throughout and won going away. Merry Acrobat also liked the soft going and ran up to his best form. Meltonian came from a long way back and finished strongly. Muzio ran in improved form. Payne got away running, but failed to stay. Shorthorse quit in the last quarter and was swerving all over the track. Lyne was too weak to do him justice and his race was too bad to be true. He can easily beat this kind.

Scratched—34918 Scoffer, 112; Colonist, 108.

Overweights—Merry Acrobat, 1 pound; Meltonian, 1.

Winner—Ch. c, by Clifford—La Tosca (trained by W. Hayward).

Went to post at 4:00. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Caughnawaga, somewhat handicapped by the cuppy going, was sent along from the start and overhauled the pace-maker at the end of a mile, after which his victory was certain. He is a proven stayer and will be hard to beat over a cup route. Dixieline improved suddenly and trailed the field to the stretch turn, where he moved up fast and finished very strongly. Oom Paul tired after leading for the first mile under a choking pull and did not run his race.

Scratched—34797 Par Excellence, 123; (34888) The Rival, 116; (34886) Colonel Bill, 106; 34944 Trump, 106.

Blessed Damozel saved ground by going next to the inside rail and finishing strongly was much the best. Birdwood came with a rush at the end on the outside. Wild Oats tired fast when the pinch came after showing speed. Hopefield ran well for seven furlongs. Russellton faltered palpably when the pinch came. The Ladaean was never a serious contender. Chicuasabog pulled up after running four and a half furlongs.

Lord Touchwood showed much speed and appeared the winner when a furlong out, but tired perceptibly when challenged by the winner. Antagonist was given a poorly judged ride, Winkfield losing much ground by taking a wide turn when entering the last quarter. He finished stoutly, but was unable to overcome the lost ground. Shooting Star was well beaten when a sixteenth out.

Winner—B. c. by Kingston—Strap (trained by G. W. Orchard).
Went to post at 2:50. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Spud Caldwell was the best of a bad field and won as his rider elected. Loyal Prince, favored by the going, stood a hard drive through the stretch gamely. John W. Patton made up considerable ground from a slow beginning and would have been second in a few more strides. Assassin did his best and had no mishaps. La Gorta ran a good race. Maggie W. could not negotiate the going. Princess Otilie saved ground on the stretch turn, but quit badly under punishment.
Scratched—34901 Orme, 104.
Overweights—Loyal Prince, 5 pounds.

Winner—B. c. by Russell—Lady B. (trained by W. H. Sayre).
Went to post at 3:17. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Tom Hall, well handled, saved ground by hugging the rail on the stretch turn, stood a stretch drive gamely and got up in the last few strides. Will Shields was a contender throughout and should have won but Perry rode a weak finish. Mrs. Frank Foster forced the pace in the early stages, but tired from her effort at the end. Springwater was well spent after going a half mile. Soothsayer was outpaced from the start and had no mishaps. The Forum showed a flash of early speed.

Winner—Ch. f. by Pirate of Penzance—Hyden (trained by C. M. Watters).
Went to post at 3:42. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Rustic Girl in the going was much the best and aided by a good ride won easily. Sortie, lucky at the start and vigorously ridden, ran in improved form and was easily the best of the others. Dynasty was hard ridden all the way and about ran to form. Advocator ran well in spots. Longflo labored in the going and lacked speed. Fairy Dell had no chance with the start.

Winner—Ch. c. by Hanover—Dilemma (trained by W. Dixon).
Went to post at 4:07. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Hinsdale hewed a liking for the going, forced the pace throughout and raced Clarena into exhaustion, but had to be driven to the limit in the last sixteenth. Clarena, if better handled, would in all probability have won. At that her race was an improvement over her previous recent efforts. Easy Street was always outrun, but under punishment came strongly in the stretch. Lou Rey began slowly, but finished stoutly and is showing steady improvement. Huzzah did not fancy the going and was never a contender.
Overweights—Easy Street, 3 pounds.

Winner—B. f. by Rainbow—Princess Palatine (trained by G. W. Beck).
Went to post at 4:32. At post 3 minutes. Start poor. Won pulled up; second easily. Georgia Gardner, at home in the going and running to her best form, made a show of the field. Zack Ford was hard ridden in the early stages, but gradually wore down in the run home and finished strongly. Orris Goan weakened badly in the run home. Carl C. was a contender for a half only. Vituria was off poorly. The same applies to H. S. Tobacco, which showed a flash of speed in the early part of the race. Prince of India was on the verge of breaking down when going to the post. Little Chico was left standing flatfooted, but went after the field.
Scratched—34810 Termless, 107; 34811 Sister Kate II, 104; 34841 Iris, 102.

Winner—Ch. m. by Bassettlaw—Sardonyx (trained by J. Davis).
Went to post at 5:06. At post 1 minute. Start bad. Won easily; second the same. Sardine was under pressure in the early stages, but gradually wore down the leaders and won going away. Almanzo was tipped all the way, stood punishment gamely in the stretch drive and but for having to make up a lot of ground soon after the start might have given the winner a stout argument. Competitor ran well and showed a liking for the going. Worthington came with a rush in the last quarter and ran in much improved form. Emma C. L. and Mattie Spencer showed early speed, but were raced into exhaustion in pacing the field. The latter is not of heavy going.
Scratched—27765 Mackland, 107; (34841) Arachne, 104; (34872) Frivol, 100; 34902 Miss Chapman, 98; 34871 The Mirage, 93.

Went to post at 2:32. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Tancred was at home in the going, showed the most speed and was never in trouble. Chamblee ran in much improved form.
